SCHOOL CLOSURES.

Another year has rolled around and again "finis" is written to another term of the Hondo High School. Another class of seniors has graduated, its members have been handed their diplomas, and the junior class proudly steps forward to take the place vacated.

Vacation time is here. The teachers are scattering to their various summer avocations—some to return to their posts in the fall; others to know their places here no more—and the students are turning with eager anticipations of pleasure to a well earned rest.

The closing exercises began Sunday with the preaching of the Baccalaureate Sermon. The services were held at the Baptist church and the sermon was preached by Rev. A. M. Foster, Pastor of the Methodist church. Elsewhere we are privileged to publish his sermon. Songs and choruses were furnished by members of both the Baptist and Methodist choirs, while Dr. W. H. Smith and Joe Monkhouse sang a duet and Mrs. Roland Gaines sang a solo. The invocation was delivered by Pastor W. C. Brown of the Baptist church and the benediction by Rev. J. T. Horger. A large audience filled the commodious church building for the impressive services.

On Monday night, members of the graduating class gave the class play at the Auditorium. The little comedy in three acts, "Come Out of the Kitchen", was splendidly rendered before a large and appreciative audience.

A chorus by nine old fashioned girls and five little "negro" boys was a pleasing feature of the evening's program. The proceeds of the play were ample to take care of the expenses of the closing exercises.

On Tuesday evening came the crowning feature of the closing of school—the graduating exercises. A class of thirteen, seven girls and six boys, were awarded diplomas. Following is the class roll: Velma King, Corinne Reynolds, Willie Belle McClaugherty, Eunice McClaugherty, Lillie Frerichs, Tony Windrow, J. C. Merriman, Leslie Stiegler, Albert Hutzler, Alice Neumann, Lela Neumann, Jerome Foster and Travis Mansell.

The stage was beautifully decorated in the class colors and with ferns and potted plants, and afforded a beautiful setting for the exercises.

Rev. W. C. Brown opened the program by delivering the invocation. Miss Lela Neumann delivered the Salutatory. Miss Willie Belle McClaugherty read the Class History. Mrs. Horace Bradley sang a beautiful solo. Albert Hutzler delivered the Class Prophecy. The Class Poem was read by Miss Eunice McClaugherty. Jerome Foster read the Class Will. Following this, Dr. W. H. Smith, as senior member of the Board of Trustees, introduced the speaker of the evening, Hon. Horace Kelton of San Antonio. Mr. Kelton delivered a brief address, filled with good and wholesome counsel to the members of the graduating class. Following this address, the Valedictorians of the class, Miss Velma King and Mr. Tony Windrow, delivered their addresses. Judge L. J. Brucks presented the diplomas and scholarships. Rev. Brown pronounced the Benediction, and the curtain fell on the last scene of the 1923-'24 term of the Hondo High School.

The bobbed haired bandits and their male companions, mention of whose arrest while burglarizing the Howell store in Devine last week was made in our last issue, hardly got acquainted with the inmates of the county jail before Houston officers came for them. The quartette it seems was very much wanted in Houston but the specific charge on which they were carried back to the Bayon City was the theft of a car, the property of a Fort Worth man visiting in that city. The Houston officers, however, said there was a large number of other complaints against them. After the Houston courts are through with them they will be returned here to face the burglary charge pending in the court here.

Claude Gilliam returned from the live stock market last week-end where he had been with several carloads of fat cattle. And he came home with his pockets bulging with the "long green", having found a good market. And that same "long green" is burning his pockets and he is going to buy something soon. However, we place no credence in the report that he was seen a few days ago chasing an aeroplane and waving a handful of bills at the aviator, trying to buy the machine. Some people are always starting baseless reports. Mr. Gilliam's favorite modes of travel have always been Tin Lizzies and bronchos, and he is not likely to desert his early loves.

There have been several business changes in Hondo since the first of the month. The first of these was the selling of Rolly Schuehle's cold drink business to his brother, Oscar Schuehle; Ben Graff and Edgar Stiegler Monday of this week bought Joe Huesser's restaurant and cold drink business, and Ernest D. Boehle has purchased a one-half interest in the Frank Westfall filling station and auto repair business. The public welcomes these young men into the business life of the community and wishes for them a prosperous and pleasant career.

Mail orders promptly attended to. Phone or write us for any and every thing usually sold in a Drug Store. W. H. Windrow.

Carload shipments for the week from the local depot totaled thirteen loads, as follows: Outbound, 2 cars cattle, 1 of mixed grain, 1 of oats and 1 of hay; inbound, 1 car of flour, 1 of gasoline, 2 of live stock, 1 of insecticide and 3 of automobiles.

The reaper and binder is again heard in the land, and one of the best oat crops in years is being harvested. Now if a fair price is realized for the crop, the money stringency in this section ought to be materially relaxed and business receive a new impetus.

Fritz Weber was a visitor to Hondo for a short while Monday while enroute to his home at Utopia from a trip to San Antonio where he had been in consultation with his physician. Mr. Weber is fast regaining his strength after having undergone a serious operation some weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Davis and little daughter, Lucy, accompanied Prof. W. N. Saathoff to Castroville Thursday evening where Prof. Saathoff delivered the address to the graduating class and awarded the diplomas to a class of seven, one girl and six boys, at the close of the school.

Judge and Mrs. L. J. Brucks and daughters, Misses Lillian, Annie Lee and Genevieve, went to Castroville Thursday evening to attend the closing exercises of the school. Henry Moore is suffering from a bad leg, the result of a dog bite. Enroute to Devine, and getting confused as to the road, he found himself at Henry Bendele's place, where he stopped to inquire the way. After receiving the desired information from a young lady, who answered his call, he turned to enter his car, when the dog slipped up behind him and grabbed him by the right leg, just above his shoe top, sinking his teeth into the flesh. Mr. Moore has suffered considerably from the bite, and is receiving treatment of his wound from a Hondo physician.

The Aztecs, Hondo's crack Mexican base ball team, journeyed down to Dilley last Sunday and found a rather tough team awaiting them. A double-header was pulled off, the Aztecs taking one game, the Dilley aggregation the other. The Aztecs have a double-header scheduled with the Jordan Ivers Motor Co. team of San Antonio on the local diamond tomorrow. The visitors are reported to have a strong team and a couple of good games are in prospect.

J. W. Miller is tenderly nursing some sore fingers, the result of getting them caught in the machinery of his cultivator. Live Oak School closed Wednesday, and despite the threatening weather, had a very interesting program Wednesday night. The graduating class consisted of only one graduate this year, Hilmar Haegelin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haegelin. The teachers at Live Oak this year were Misses Lillian Brucks and Evelyn Wilson, two Hondo High School graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horger and daughter, Miss Leora, Mrs. J. H. Henderson and Miss Marguerite Newton left last Sunday for Dallas. Mr. Horger went to the North Texas city to attend the embalmers' convention, while the ladies will spend their time visiting relatives and friends. The party is expected to return home tomorrow.

Text:—Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity'. (1st Tim: 4-12.)

Using this as a topical text the central thought is the greatness of personality. In a very true sense personality is the greatest thing in human experience. It was Henry Drummond who said, "love is the greatest thing in the world", but love is only a part of personality.
Just as individuality is only a part of personality. Hope, faith and goodness are great things but they are all included in personality. In fact, personality is the sum-total of what we are—it is the unit of our being, and reaches its highest and fullest development in love and a sincere desire to be of service to others. All mental keenness, grasp and decision, all purity, dignity and serene poise of spirit—these combine to make what we call personality.

Personality is self-revealing and I want you to remember that personality is self-revealing. For example, you may look about you in a railway car, on the street, in a hotel lobby, in a crowded audience, or any place where there is a great congregation of people and your eye passes lightly over one hundred people or perhaps five hundred or a thousand people but there is some one out of that number who has somehow attracted your attention; you may not know who that person is, he may be a stranger to you, perhaps you have never seen him before, but you know at once—immediately you say to yourself, "he's somebody", there is something about him that distinguishes him and sets him apart from all the others; and that something is personality; and it's self-revealing.

Take Daniel Webster for example of whom it was said "when he walked the streets of Boston, Mass., the buildings looked smaller." Sidney Smith called Daniel Webster "the greatest living lie" for he said that it was impossible for any man to be as great as Daniel Webster appeared to be. But personality often reveals itself in other ways; not always by a noble bearing; not always by a splendid physique, but sometimes by a quiet and subtle influence. I may illustrate it this way—Abel is said to have offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which and through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying to his gifts. There is no record of a single word spoken by Abel, but simply an expression of a thought manifesting itself in an act which was individually his own. And it is said that "he being dead yet speaketh".

Next I want you to notice the enrichment of personality. And since personality is the greatest thing in human life and experience what is our duty in relation to it? and I answer you—it is to honor, enrich and develop personality; and to do this is not selfish or egotistic, for God gave this gift of personality to be a noble implement by which a man may leave his mark upon the world, serve his day and generation, and honor and glorify God his Maker. But how can we enrich personality? and no more important question can be asked today; especially when we take into consideration the fact that there are some subtle influences at work in the world today in some of our educational institutions that are absolutely detrimental to the enrichment of a righteous personality.

I am not a crepe-hanger; I am not a knocker; I am not a pessimist; I want to be optimistic. What is an optimist? If you insist upon defining an optimist as one who plays only with sunbeams, and who can hear nothing but harmonies, and who is slightly concerned with the world's agonies and tragedies because of his fancy that no matter what he or any one else does or may do, all is well with the world, then you have missed your definition of an optimist. There is a sentimental optimism which is irrational and immoral and it's the product of a shallow brain and a stupid heart. It shuts its eyes to all hideous sights and facts, and stops its ears to all horrid sounds and insists that in spite of appearances all is well with the world. This sort of optimism faces the future with a confidence born not of wisdom or courage but of moral indolence. But there are two sides to every question; if we have our superficial optimists, we have also shallow and short-sighted pessimists. There are men who have a genius for seeing shadows, and their ears are keen for discord. But may the Lord help us to find that happy medium. And while the "happy medium" in some instances is not a thing calculated to give us joy, we must have the courage to face some things and call a spade a spade. I read this statement sometime ago coming from a source that is supposed to be absolutely safe, sane and conservative; and with no desire to besmirch the good name or cast any reflection upon the character of the splendid men and women who are giving their lives to the training of our boys and girls in our public schools and colleges. But what I want to say to you who are patrons of our educational institutions is this—it is high time we were looking into the face of some cold facts—yea, sad and tragic facts. The statement referred to, brought to my notice the finding of a commission or committee, composed of some of the leading church and school men who were charged with the responsibility of looking carefully into the moral and religious lives of the teachers and college professors of this country; and their report is this—a very large percent of the teachers in the secular schools of this country are out and out skentics; meaning by that statement that they are not safe and sound in regard to the fundamental teaching of the Christian religion; that is, they deny the Genesis account of creation; they deny the supernatural in the Bible; they deny the Virgin-Birth of Christ; they deny the doctrine of the resurrection; they deny the doctrine of Atonement.

In many of our institutions of higher education science is being taught, but God as a First and Supreme Cause is left out of the whole thing. Certain teachers are not willing to accept as final anything that cannot be accounted for on a scientific basis. Atheism recognizes no Bible, no religion, it reasons that man originated through evolution or through the successive stages of development; it tells us nothing of the future life; it takes no account of the rewards of the righteous, or the damnation of the wicked, for it does not believe in any of these things. The socialism of this country is largely of this type and is the product of this kind of teaching; it would destroy our churches, it scoffs at religion and mocks at God; it would even destroy the sacredness of the marriage relationship and put humanity on the common level with a herd of cattle; the unbridled reign of passion would have full sway, and who can picture the awful condition of a country under the rule and power of atheistic teaching and practice?

Next I want you to notice the development of personality; and how is personality developed? One method is by personal association.
Where do we get our greatest faiths —where do we get our deepest convictions? Why we get them from personal association. Personal contact and association is worth infinitely more to a high school pupil than all the arguments combined. When you come in contact with a good man or a good woman you somehow catch their spirit—their convictions, and you breathe their atmosphere and there is a living germ that grows in you as it grows in them.

Some one has said that teaching is next to preaching in importance, but if we are going to consider this question as to relative value we must first of all change the order of this statement and say that preaching is next to teaching in importance; for teaching should come first—provided of course, it's the right kind of a teacher. (The same holds true in preaching and the preacher.) I am in no position to touch the life of your child just as the teacher in the public schools; this you can easily see. No pupil can be long associated with a teacher without receiving the moral and religious impression of that teacher's life whether that impression be for good or bad.

Next I want you to notice the personality of Christ; not only did He speak as one who had authority, but every act of his life attracted attention; and in the lives of those who had a character and principle within capable of responding to the beautiful, the good and the true, every word of the Master commanded the utmost respect. His was a unique personality; He was the son of Mary, but He was also the Son of God, for He was conceived by the Holy Ghost; He was both God and man—both human and Divine. And if you want to gaze upon the power and majesty of a great personality —look upon the Lord Jesus Christ; see him for example upon the Sea of Galilee. In one verse we read—"and there arose a great storm of wind" and in another verse we read —"and Jesus arose and rebuked the wind and there was a great calm", and there was a great calm not simply because He rebuked the winds and the waves, but there was a calm because He himself was calm.

If there is one lesson that men and women should have learned during the days of the world war, it is that education can either wreck or save our civilization. It was the wrong kind of education that put aside the ideals of Christ and exalted the ideals of force—the ideals of selfishness and militarism that brought to us our day of woe. And out of all the turmoil and strife and the lowering of moral standards which followed the train of war, comes the question of whether the ideals of selfishness that were forced to surrender on the battle fields are really and truly surrendered today. If we save America and give America to the glorious task of saving the world, then the heart and conscience of America must be stirred by some nobler things than are now finding expression in the lives of some of our so-called leaders; in other words, unless the church gives itself with such devotion and earnest determination to the task of putting Christ and the ideals of Christ into our American education the future holds no promise of real world leadership for America.

I would that I might impress this thought upon the mind of each and every member of this graduating class. You are a lamp of three wicks —you are body, mind, and spirit; let God light them if He has not already done so, and if He has then I beg you in Jesus name to keep them burning, and as they shine they will brighten the path for another.
Personality has been at a discount, but today thank God it is beginning to come into its own. In political life the one question used to be, how is so and so related to his party? is he a strong Democrat, is he a strong Republican, or Third-partyite, and will he stand hitched to his party? Just as though he had neither personality, soul, will, nor conscience of his own and ever under the thumb of some boss politician. I am not a politician nor the son of a politician but there was something about the life and character of the late Theodore Roosevelt that made me admire the man; and to my mind he was the central figure in helping to change all this.

He was a man of great personality first—and a righteous personality.
He set on high sterling virtue incarnated in human personality; and to him a good, noble purpose, and an unselfish life were the pass-words to achievement and success. He was one of the most versatile men of all the presidents and he has shown the world how rich and glorious a life may be when lived courageously and heartily for God and country and righteousness and humanity.

CALOMEL IS A DANGEROUS DRUG.

Next Dose may Salivate You, Loosen Teeth or Start Rheumatism.

Calomel is mercury; quicksilver.
It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you.
Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel.
Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take Calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and, you feel great. No salts necessary.
Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

On Thursday, May 15, the High School and Faculty of Castroville entertained the Seniors with a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scherrer.

As soon as all had arrived, they were sent in one by one to the gypsy fortune teller, who gave each one a number which corresponded with a number on one of the numerous paper bags that hung everywhere.

Then followed the pinning of a pipe in the clown's mouth. Leonard Marty came closest to it and received a dressed up all day sucker.

In the chewing gum contest Fannie Bourquin made the best animal and received an all day sucker dressed as a clown.

Other interesting games were conversation and cross-questions and crooked answers.

MURPHY DISTRICT NO. FOUR (P. O. Hondo, Texas.)

From Directory, Medina County Public Schools.

Murphy district is located six miles east of Hondo on the Old Spanish Trail. The district comprises about twenty square miles of the best black farming land that can be found in the country. Some of this land is still in its raw state though. Much of the farm land is worked by Mexican tenants. This is really a hindrance to the progress of the community and the school.

The building conforms in every particular to the modern type. The equipment is complete. Southwestern adjustable shades regulate the light of the room. The school board is very considerate and is always ready to assist the teacher. They have cleared the school grounds, and are now planning to give the building a coat of paint. Seven grades of work are offered in this school.

The present board of trustees are: Mr. John H. Wiemers, Mr. William Weber and Mr. John E. Neumann.

Mr. Clarence Schweers is teacher. Term, eight months. Salary $75.00. Certification of teacher, First Grade.

Scholastics 44. Enrolled 20. A good school, but could be made much better if the patrons would seriously study the advisability of a local tax for the school. A splendid opportunity for those seeking new rural locations.

UPPER QUIHI SCHOOL, DISTRICT 5.

UPPER QUIHI DISTRICT NO. FIVE (P. O. Dunlay, Texas.)

This is the oldest public free school in Medina County. It was organized in 1876, but the public school was taught before it was organized in an old two-story rock building at Quihi, and later in the old Lutheran Church at Quihi.

The following taught the school at the above mentioned places from 1870 to 1876: Rudolph Runge, Joyce Luer and a Mrs. Parsons.

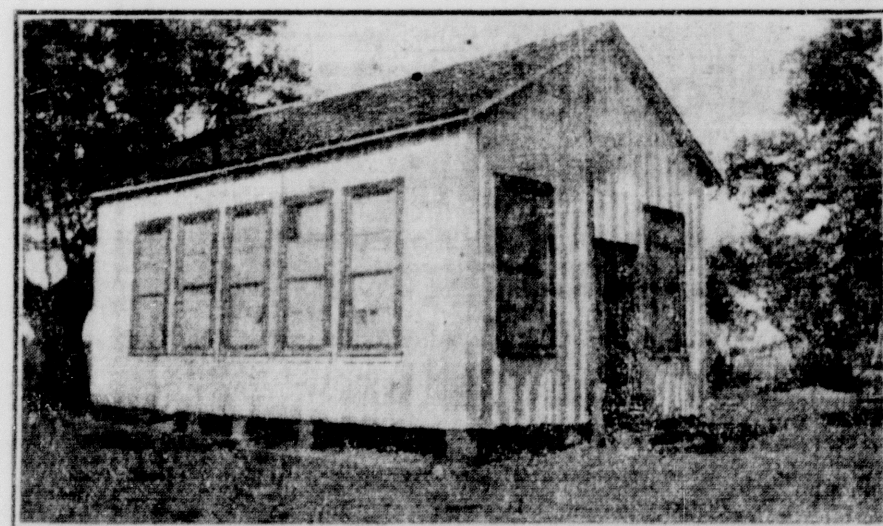

In 1875, Judge B. Brucks, then County Judge of Medina County, built the first public (free) school-house on a lot owned by Capt. M. Saathoff. In 1876, the citizens of Quihi met and organized the German-English School of Quihi, and wrote a Constitution and By-Laws. The following are some of the first members of the organization: Hy. Schweers, Hy. Schuehle, F. Rieden, Heyo Schweers, Hy. Balzen, M. Saathoff, Lud. Heickman, Wm. Schweers, Harm Balzen, B. Brucks, Christ. Eckhardt and Hy. Grodt.

The school-house was moved one mile east so as to be more in the center of the community. At that place the old building stood until July, 1910, when the old structure to which some more had been added (in the mean time) was torn down and moved for the 4th time two miles north-east so as to follow the center of population, and part of the house (the picture of which is here shown) was constructed, the patrons buying more new lumber to finish a one room school-house.

In 1918, a local tax of 10c was voted and two teachers were then employed and an additional room was built so that today it conforms to modern plans. It has all modern equipments, library and everything that makes a school a success.

The following are some of the teachers who taught from the time it was organized to date: Charles Runge, 1876-1877; Hy. Grodt, 1877-1878; Chas. Mierow, 1878-1885; D. Ludwig, Jul. Marquis, A. B. Brucks, Mrs. Kate Burgin (nee Saathoff); John Heyen, two years; S. Speckman, one year; S. H. Saathoff, fourteen years; S. H. Saathoff and Miss E. Tidmore, one year; Miss E. Tidmore and Miss G. Knippa, two years; Miss J. Knippa and Miss Sadie Earnest, two years at present.

Scholastics 72; enrolled 44. Term, 8 months; Salary $90.00 and $70.00. Certification, First and Second.

FLY SCHOOL, DISTRICT 6.

FLY DISTRICT NO. SIX (P. O. Hondo, Texas.)

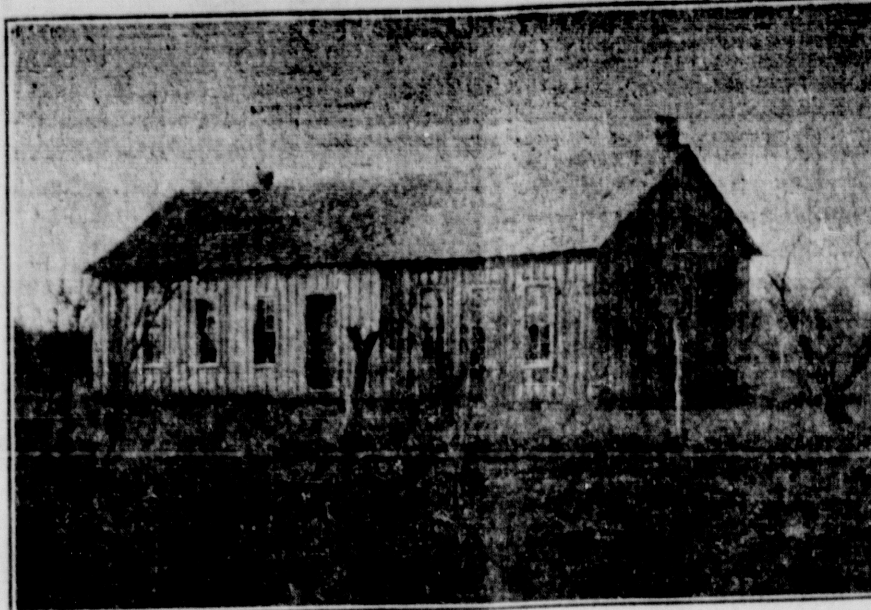

Fly School District joins Hondo Independent on the north. It comprises about twenty square miles of territory. All of the lands are cultivable. Many of the land owners live in Hondo, and have the farm work done by Mexican tenants. The revenues derived from this method of farming do not, in many instances, return fair dividends on the investments. Substantial white renters would enhance the value of the property in this district and would also give the school an impetus that would mean much towards improving the educational conditions in the district. At present the majority of the children are Mexicans. They make fine students, and are willing to learn, but they are handicapped because they cannot speak the American language.

The building conforms to the State plan. The equipment is about complete with the exception of a library. The board is very considerate and strives to assist the teacher in "putting over" a good school.

The present board of trustees are: Mr. Jeff Peters, Mr. Ad. Pichot and Mr. Robert L. Mumme.

Miss Evelyn Lacy is teacher. Term, eight months. Salary $85.00. Certification, B. A. State University of Texas.

Scholastics 63, enrolled 30. A good school that has splendid possibilities for growth. At present the district has no tax. The voters will gladly vote the tax when needed.

LONGVIEW SCHOOL, DISTRICT 7.

LONGVIEW DISTRICT NO. SEVEN (P. O. Hondo, Texas.)

The name is very appropriate to this district. It is located west of Hondo Independent District. All of the district is a level prairie. Most of the lands are in a high state of development, and the farmers are prosperous. All forms of grain crops are raised, but cotton is the predominating crop. The Old Spanish Trail passes through the district east and west.

The school building is of the old box type—it was built before the modern idea struck the people. For several years the board maintained a two teacher school in order to give the Mexicans of the community an opportunity of an American education. Last year the board agreed to transfer all their funds of 1923-24 to Hondo Independent district in order to give the few children then attending school a high school education. Hence the school is closed for this term.

The present board of trustees are: Mr. John Fohn, Mr. August Mumme and Mr. William Ziegenbaig.

Scholastics enrolled in this district for 1923-1924 are 45. The school is well equipped with desks, maps, globes, charts, etc.

HAASS DISTRICT NO. EIGHT (P. O. Devine, Texas.)

The district has its name from one of the early pioneer settlers in the district. It is located twenty miles south-east of Hondo on the Southern Pacific Railroad. The school is in the heart of the "wild-cat" oil territory on the banks of the Francisco Creek. The building is old and has served its purpose. It is of rock. The building problem needs to be solved soon. The board of trustees have had several meetings to discuss the erection of a modern building, but due to the fact that they might have oil before long they have delayed the matter indefinitely. This district could easily divide its territory among the adjoining districts and abandon the school, thereby giving the children better educational opportunities. The equipment of the school is poor, and the grounds are too small and not well kept.

The present board of trustees are: Mr. Emil Bendele, Mr. Joe Weiss and Mr. Joe Tschirhart.

Miss Gladys Williams is teacher, term seven months. Salary $75.00. Certification of teacher, Second Grade.

The patrons of this district should vote a strong local tax for school maintenance, remodel the building, or build new, and equip the building so that it will conform with the state plans, and meet the approval of the State Department of Education.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING.

The meeting called at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night was well attended and great interest manifested by all present.

The first business of the meeting was listening to the report of the committee appointed at a former meeting to inspect and investigate different fire fighting apparatus; this meeting devoting its entire attention to better fire protection.

The same committee, which was continued in office was authorized to purchase a Ford chassis and mount the two chemical fire extinguishers on same.

The committee was also instructed to visit San Antonio and examine different means of fighting fires and also investigate proper fire apparatus for the Hondo Fire Department.

June 3rd was set aside as the date for the next meeting, at which time the merits of the Ford and Reo pumps will be investigated, and all interested in better fire protection are urged to be present at the meeting.

A number of delightfully exciting games were played after which the hostess and honoree, assisted by Mrs. Alice Reinhart and Mrs. Walter Rothe, served a dainty ice and cake course with favors of sweet peas.

The guests of the afternoon were Mesdames Walter Rothe, Alice Reinhart, Frank Cockrell, A. J. Hutzler, Lou Heath, Charles Finger, Felix Richter, Geo. WILSON LODGE AT MEDINA IS BURNED.

The Wilson Lodge, one of the largest private camps at Medina Lake, was burned Monday night, according to telephone reports received in San Antonio. The loss was estimated at $10,000.

The fire is said to have been caused by the explosion of an oil stove in the kitchen. None of the contents of the house is known to have been saved.

The lodge was constructed of lumber and contained eight rooms. It was formerly known as the Talmadge Place and was purchased by Judge Wilson, formerly of Beaumont, who moved to San Antonio a short time ago.—Tuesday's Express

HONDO WANTS FIRE PROTECTION.

A number of Hondo business men were in Uvalde Wednesday inspecting the fire equipment and getting information looking to the reduction of fire insurance in Hondo City. These gentlemen were L. A. Mechler, C. J. Bless, Ed Ney, J. J. Droitecourt, A. G. Walker.—Uvalde Leader-News.

A telephone message early yesterday morning from Mr. John Tragger brought the sad news that his son, John M. Tragger, died at 12:30 o'clock Friday morning, following an operation for appendicitis at a hospital in San Antonio. Deceased is survived by his parents, a young wife and several small children, and a younger brother.

Health Brings Beauty

Roanoke, Texas—"I was ill for weeks, not able to do my work.

I had feminine trouble of a serious nature. At evening I would have high fever and my back and head would ache day and night. The doctor wanted to give me treatments, but my druggist advised my husband to get a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Before I had taken the first bottle I felt so much better I bought another, and before I was thru taking that I was well."—Mrs. R. E. Cunningham, Route 1.

AROMA Is a Perculiar Thing

You cannot taste it, and yet, your coffee does not taste right unless the fragrant aroma is there to tempt you.

One of the best ways to judge a coffee is by its aroma, for unless the blending has been perfect and the roasting scientifically correct the aroma will not be there.

Try a cup of H and H today.

Its aroma will bring you back for more.
